Paraphrase of the text

It is the greatest of all things that we have seen, and it is the most beautiful of all things, and it is the most precious of all things, and it is the most valuable of all things.

And it is the most precious of all things,
and it is the most valuable of all things,
and it is the most beautiful of all things,
and it is the greatest of all things.

And it is the most precious of all things,
and it is the most valuable of all things,
and it is the most beautiful of all things,
and it is the greatest of all things.
